

Doc Dougherty

Actor, POWER on Starz
Domestic Violence Survivor

Doc is a native New Yorker who realized the city job he was taught to aspire to wasn't really the promised land he was told it would be, so he moved to Manhattan to pursue an acting career. It's been a wonderful struggle landing roles on NYPD Blue, Law & Order, NY Undercover, Jackie McNaughton on One Life to Live, and most recently, the previous two seasons of Power on STARZ as Detective Leary.

Doc also works at the NYC Police Academy in the Crisis Intervention Training Program which places police officers in high stakes scenes and teaches them the verbal skills needed to deescalate potentially dangerous and violent situations.

Doc also aspires to live in Rome; he is working on that.
